

*Are you new to Canada?
Are you looking to build a successful career?
ACCES Employment can help!*

Talk English Café

Our Talk English Café helps you to enhance your English conversation skills in a relaxed setting through informal discussion, interaction and trainer-directed activities.

Program Benefits:

- Develop workplace communication skills including understanding cultural differences, building relationships with colleagues and managers, and engaging in "small talk"
- Receive guidance from a qualified English as a Second Language (ESL) instructor
- Improve your pronunciation, grammar and vocabulary
- Interact with other new Canadians to practice conversation skills through engaging exercises led by a facilitator

Drop-in Sessions

Drop-in sessions of Talk English Café are offered at all five ACCES Employment locations. Sessions are offered regularly each week.

Sector-Specific Sessions

ACCES Employment currently offers sector-specific sessions for professionals in the Finance, Information Technology and Engineering sectors. Conversations and activities are structured to facilitate discussions with specific workplace examples, common terminology and other sector-specific topics. Guest speakers are often invited to support the session by introducing sector topics.
