- Personalized communication and coaching sessions in a variety of areas including delivering strong presentations, report writing, and understanding intercultural communication differences

Maha Al Amin came to ACCES Employment for help with achieving her professional goals in Canada. When she graduated from the Human Resources Connections program, Maha attended a Speed Mentoring® event with an employer in the financial industry. “I had the opportunity to meet with a lot of people from the industry. I received several job offers through the connections I made at a Speed Mentoring® event.”

WHY SHOULD YOU CHOOSE ACCES EMPLOYMENT?

ACCES Employment programs and services are highly specialized, offering sector-specific training designed to help new Canadians find work in their field. Each program is offered in close consultation with leading employers and academic partners and is designed to enhance (and not duplicate) your existing education. Our first priority is to help you find full-time, permanent employment that reflects your experience.

PROGRAM FEES

- The fee for this program is $500. This offsets a portion of the Sheridan College academic component. The program may be eligible for full reimbursement through the Ontario Bridging Participant Assistance Program.
- All books and materials are included or available on-loan to participants at no additional cost.
- All other costs related to the program and employment services are generously funded by the Government of Ontario and the Government of Canada.

Human Resources Connections

“Canada is one of the few places in the world where you are welcomed as a new Canadian, not an immigrant. It is your home.”

Maha Al Amin, Senior Advisor, Talent Strategies, Diversity & Inclusion, Human Resources, BMO Financial Group
