

Leadership Connections in Finance, IT and Consultancy

The Leadership Connections in Finance, IT, and Consultancy program supports internationally trained professionals who have senior-level experience and qualifications in IT and finance. Participants receive training on essential leadership skills, build professional networks, and connect with employers while working in a group of their peers. This program supports participants with securing employment at a level that is consistent with their experience and background.

“ ACCES was my North star, giving me hope and confidence while equipping me with the resources to understand the subtle nuances of the Canadian workplace. ”
