

Career Pathways for Newcomer Women

Career Pathways for Newcomer Women (CPNW) is designed to help professional newcomer women find employment that utilizes their skills and experience. Helping participants explore a range of possible career paths, the program also focuses on building essential skills for the 21st century, delivering extensive employment coaching and providing regular opportunities to connect with employers and mentors to support both short and long-term career success. The program will equip participants with the skills, confidence and professional connections to thrive in fast-paced and changing work environments.

“The program gave a new direction to my job search approach. The skills and techniques I learned in the sessions were really helpful. The sessions were informative and delivered in a very engaging way. I left with more confidence, clarity and vision.”
