

Human Resources Connections

Human Resources Connections helps internationally trained human resources professionals find work in Canada. This program provides you with training that is current and relevant to Canadian workplaces. It builds on your previous human resources expertise by providing an orientation to your sector in Canada. Participants will receive information on HRP and training in Employment Law & Diversity Management, Industrial Relations, Health & Safety, Payroll and Pensions, Mental Health, Disability Management and HR Metrics & Analytics.

Additional Components Include

CKE 1, CKE 2, CHRP and CHRL Employment Law Exam preparation

“The program enriched me with valuable information, resources and connections needed to thrive in the Canadian labour market. I was able to secure a job consistent with my experience and background immediately after the program.”
