

Leadership Connections

Leadership Connections supports internationally trained professionals who have senior level experience and qualifications in IT and Finance. Participants receive training on essential leadership skills, build professional networks and connect with employers, while working in a group of their peers. Leadership Connections supports participants with securing employment at a level that is consistent with their experience and background.

“ACCES was my North star, giving me hope and confidence while equipping me with the resources to understand the subtle nuances of the Canadian workplace.”
