

Cloud Computing Connections

Cloud Computing Connections is a sector-specific bridging program offered in collaboration with Amazon Web Services (AWS) and Sheridan College. The objective of this program is to help leverage your fundamental IT skills and institutional knowledge to specialize in cloud domains. By training directly with AWS, you will be learning from AWS experts who are delivering current and up-to-date industry content and insights.

Program Benefits Delivered by a Team of Employment Experts

Get practical skills through practice sessions using AWS features and services, while learning to apply these skills to your use case

Benefit from accredited AWS instructors (with extensive technical expertise) and learn from content that is frequently updated to keep pace with ongoing AWS innovations

Receive extensive support as you prepare for your certification exam (AWS Certified Solutions Architect – Associate or AWS Certified Developer – Associate)

Obtain an AWS exam voucher to cover the examination cost

Get hands-on learning experience from real IT projects

Become affiliated with Sheridan College and Amazon Web Services (through your participation in this program)
