

Financial Services Connections™ in a Digital World

The Financial Services Connections™ in a Digital World program provides internationally trained financial services professionals with practical job search information and connections to employers in the financial sector. Program participants will learn how to integrate into the Canadian workplace and effectively communicate with colleagues and clients within the sector.

“ I was doing things the way they are done back in my country until ACCES helped me to understand the Canadian job market and how to successfully find the right job. ”
