

Supply Chain Connections

The Supply Chain Connections program assists internationally trained professionals with moving into a range of positions within the sector. The program features an introduction to the supply chain sector in Canada, sector-specific workplace skills and connections with employers in the supply chain field. After participants find work, they can receive ongoing sector-specific and business communication coaching via post-employment support.

“ I finished the program armed with the knowledge I needed to find gainful employment and also excel in the workplace. ”
