

NEW

Disability Employment Support Program

This new program will provide you with personalized job search support and counseling specific to your needs.

Discover your path to employment with us:

- Receive one-to-one support from employment consultants who will guide you through every stage of your job search.
- Gain expert help to explore various career opportunities that match your unique skills and strengths.
- Set your employment goals and get support including developing a resume, preparing for interviews, and acquiring new skills.
- Get connected to local employers who are looking to hire.
- Benefit from ongoing job coaching support to help maintain employment.

If you identify as a person with disabilities or are supported by the Ontario Disability Support Program (ODSP) connect with us today to learn more about how we can help:
