

Career Pathways for Newcomer Women

Career Pathways for Newcomer Women (CPNW) is designed to support professional newcomer women in securing employment that utilizes their skills and experience. In addition to guiding you in exploring a range of career paths that will support your short and long-term success in the labour market, you will focus on building future skills, receive extensive employment coaching, and regularly connect with employers and mentors.

“ The program gave a new direction to my job search approach. The skills and techniques I learned in the sessions were really helpful. The sessions were informative and delivered in a very engaging way. I left with more confidence, clarity and vision. ”
