

Northern Ontario Internationally Educated Healthcare Professional Accelerator

Launch your healthcare career in Ontario with the Northern Ontario Internationally Educated Healthcare Professional (IEHP) Accelerator program. The program empowers IEHPs with the skills, knowledge, and support needed to navigate career pathways, overcome employment barriers, and access meaningful opportunities within Ontario's healthcare workforce.

IEHPs are well positioned to contribute to Northern Ontario's healthcare workforce, where many rural and northern communities are working to address ongoing health human resource shortages and improve access to care.

Program Benefits

-  Personalized career guidance and healthcare career pathway planning
-  Skills development and training aligned with Ontario's healthcare labour market needs
-  Connections with healthcare employers and community partners, including opportunities with employers participating in wage subsidy initiatives that support hiring and on-the-job training
-  Professional mentorship from experienced healthcare professionals
-  Personalized employment and career support to help participants achieve their goals, including services that address barriers to training and employment
-  Increased readiness for employment in Ontario's healthcare sector

Program Eligibility

- ☒ An IEHP seeking to build or advance a career in Northern Ontario's healthcare sector
- ☒ Legally authorized to work in Canada (e.g., Canadian citizen, permanent resident, convention refugee, or refugee claimant with a valid work permit of at least one year)
- ☒ English language skills equivalent to CLB 7 or higher
- ☒ Motivated to enhance skills, expand professional networks, and successfully integrate into Ontario's healthcare workforce
